Chair Report: Chair Akins explained proposed changes for COC's assignments. The suggested way is to go with categories versus assigning clubs. After much discussion it was decided unanimously to go with this change starting now. The categories were assigned.

When Myrna receives a call from a club member asking for help beyond a question she can answer on the phone, she will contact the appropriate COC(s) to get in touch with the club.

The categories and assignments are listed below:

- Crafts (29 clubs) – Dottie Paradis and James Teransinski
- Sports (23 clubs) – Terry Watts
- Educational, Fitness and National – Bernice Darish and Carl Stein
- Card Clubs and Hobby (29) – Alan Ruda and Mary Haldemann
- Dance, Music and Social (30 clubs) – Pat Clucker and Stella Van Ness

Myrna asked for all club files to be returned to her and stated that she would have the files in the Chartered Clubs Office where the COCs could come and review them. COCs will no longer have a mailbox in the Chartered Clubs Office.

It was suggested that Myrna set up training for COC's and Club Officers for conflict resolution. Chair Akins stressed that no one in RCSC Management or the Board of Directors are trying to shut down clubs but are actually doing the opposite by expanding Chartered Clubs Office Staff.

It was decided to have a December 8 meeting at 10:00am but will go to quarterly meetings starting in 2022.
